There are 13 Sacred Wisdom Teachings within a 13-week initiation period, preparing you for the 7-day training Generational Healing™ leading to a Certification as a Generational Healer™. Each teaching is an in-depth exploration of the unseen world of energy that is constantly interacting with you, dictating how you feel, think, sense and make life choices. These are the unseen worlds that make up your physical reality. How you feel, think and behave are designed by these unseen aspects. During your 13-week apprenticeship you will learn more about yourself and how the world of energy affects you and your loved ones, empowering, liberating and freeing you. Its time to end the cycle of inherit generational trauma held within the memory of your DNA, by releasing your families generational lineage unhealed trauma.

Every ancestor who came before you left their body with unhealed issues and emotional trauma, those issues continue to be played out by their next of kin, you, no matter how far down the line in your lineage they are.

*Generational Healing™ was discovered and founded in the jungles of Guatemala by Deborah Skye King at a Sacred Maya Temple after four consecutive years of initiation work beginning in 2009.
